

Gerund

GGAT Konsultacje z Języka Angielskiego Grzegorz Dutkiewicz www.eltcggat.com.pl

Name: _____

Date: __/__/20__

1. Do you mind telling me her name? (tell)
2. Finding him decided, I avoided entering into argument with him on those points. (enter)
3. However, they would never consider starting from our house. (start)
4. I can't understand treating any one in that way. (treat)
5. You won't mind waiting a little while. (wait)
6. It was evident that she feared discovering the reason. (discover)
7. I enjoy writing about these wonderful dogs. (write)
8. Movement in any direction suggested walking on a huge ball. (walk)
9. I practiced taking the ship through maneuvers. (take)
10. I couldn't resist sticking in my oar. (stick)
11. I wouldn't risk tampering with the lock. (tamper)
12. She loathed staying another minute in it. (stay)
13. I enjoyed listening and looking at them. (listen) (look)
14. They kept on studying the flight of birds. (study)
15. I don't see anything that I can do, save going on in my former course. (go on)
16. He avoids keeping them too long at the same movement, although each should be understood before passing to another. (keep)
17. It is scarcely possible to avoid comparing the eye to a telescope. (compare)

18. She could not imagine going to the play but to a good box, at her own command, and in a carriage to take her there. (go)

19. Was he so sure that he should enjoy wearing clothes again?
(wear)

20. He narrowly escaped drowning in the blood. (drown)