

Countable and Uncountable Nouns

Level: Advanced

Test: 1

Score: __/20

1. Which sentence is grammatically correct at an advanced level?

- a) The data suggests an increase in knowledges across departments.
- b) We have a few information about the upcoming event.
- c) The committee members made many progresses this quarter.
- d) There is surprisingly little furniture in the new apartment.

2. Complete the sentence:

Half the board is convinced that _____ measures have already been implemented, but the report reveals glaring gaps that undermine that perception.

- a) numerous
- b) plentiful
- c) numerous of
- d) much

3. Select the line where an error with countable/uncountable nouns exists:

- a) We have ample equipment for the expedition.
- b) She earned a great deal of respect from her colleagues over the years.
- c) There are many progresses to celebrate this quarter.
- d) I would like some information regarding your services.

4. Which of the following sentences uses countable/uncountable nouns correctly?

- a) "The factory is equipped with advanced machinery to boost production."
- b) "There is a large amount of assignments due next week."
- c) "She was unable to find the right informations for her presentation."
- d) "He gave me some helpful advices before the exam."

5. Choose the correct classification for the underlined noun in the sentence:

The news about the economic crisis spread rapidly.

- a) Plural
- b) Countable
- c) Uncountable

6. Choose the option with the correct use of countable/uncountable nouns:

- a) She provided several pieces of useful informations at the conference.
- b) Considerable evidence points toward a systemic malfunction.
- c) I need some advices before I make a decision.
- d) There are few news worth reporting this evening.

7. Complete the sentence:

There is a lot of _____ to be done before we can launch the product.

- a) work
- b) works
- c) Both a and d
- d) piece of work

8. Choose the correct word to complete the sentence:

The factory needs to purchase new _____ to improve production efficiency.

- a) equipment
- b) machine
- c) furnitures
- d) equipments

9. Fill in the blank with the correct option:

There is ____ evidence to support the claim, so we need to investigate further.

- a) much
- b) many
- c) a few
- d) several

10. Fill in the blank with the correct option:

The conference provided ____ useful information about the topic.

- a) each
- b) a few
- c) some
- d) several

11. Identify the word that does not belong in the group based on its countable/uncountable nature:

- a) Homework
- b) Equipment
- c) Furniture
- d) Suggestion

12. Choose the option that best revises the underlined clause for countability accuracy:

Many research have shown that cross-cultural management skills lead to higher team efficacy.

- a) Many researches shows
- b) Much research has shown
- c) A number of research
- d) Several piece of research

13. Choose the quantifier that matches the noun correctly:

_____ of the evidence presented in court was circumstantial.

- a) A large amount
- b) Few
- c) Many
- d) A large number

14. Which sentence is correct?

- a) They provided many feedbacks after the presentation.
- b) Much of the informations we received was outdated.
- c) He has fewer furniture than his neighbor.
- d) I need less sugar in my tea, please.

15. Choose the grammatically correct sentence:

- a) There is a large number of informations on this website.
- b) The amount of sugar in this recipe is too much for my taste.
- c) A few luggages were left behind at the airport.
- d) She made too many progress in just one month of training.

16. Correct the following sentence:

Incorrect: There isn't many informations available on this topic.

- a) There aren't many informations available on this topic.
- b) There isn't many information available on this topic.
- c) There isn't much information available on this topic.
- d) There aren't much information available on this topic.

17. Fill in the blank with the correct option:

Despite her knowledge, she has little _____ of how to apply it in practice.

- a) understandings
- b) understanding
- c) knowledges
- d) pieces of knowledge

18. How many errors are there in the following sentence in terms of countable/uncountable nouns?

Despite the extensive researches and the several advices she received, her conclusions were still inaccurate.

- a) None
- b) Three
- c) One
- d) Two

19. Select the sentence with proper use of countable and uncountable nouns:

- a) There isn't much equipments left in stock.
- b) We experienced many amazing sceneries during our trip.
- c) The company provided him with a few pieces of feedback.
- d) She received some interesting informations yesterday.

20. Choose the grammatically correct sentence:

- a) He has very few experiences in this field, so he might struggle with the job.
- b) She provided me with a few valuable pieces of information during the meeting.
- c) There are fewer furnitures in this room compared to the other one.
- d) A large amount of books were donated to the library last year.